The Virginia will be down from Pittsburgh tonight.

There will be a big river if the snow goes off with a rain.

It is said the Joe Williams left $50,000 worth of coal stranded at Pt. Pleasant, Va.

The Pittsburgh Coal Combine will make another advance of 25 to 50% on coal about April 1.

River business is doing for Paducah what it did for Evansville twenty-five years ago. The river business is one of the things which made Evansville's population increase so rapidly between the census of 1880 and 1890.

The rising river is now over the roof of the sunken steamer Henry M. Stanley at the stern, but her upper works were still intact. As the boat lies in a place where there is very little current, it is thought that she will not go to pieces, as steamboats usually do when sunk to the depth the Stanley is.

With a return of continued good and pleasant weather the tide of travel will increase rapidly on the boats and the freight traffic on the river grow to immense proportions. The freight and passenger business is good and increasing as it is, but it will be much better when the country roads leading to the various towns and landings along the river improve.

The Steamboat Inspectors have exonerated Captain Harry F. Swaney, pilot of the Charlie Clark, from all blame by reason of the Pacific colliding with that steamer. The Inspectors say: "Captain D. A. Woodward was in fault, he having violated Pilot Rule IV and Section 442 R. S. by unskillfully navigating his steamer, for which we suspend his license as master and pilot for a period of ninety days."

Major W. H. Bixby, U. S. Engineer, who has charge of the Fourteenth Light-house District, with headquarters in Cincinnati, has received the annual report of the Lighthouse Board, replete with engravings and maps showing the different lighthouse districts. The Fourteenth District extends 900 miles along the Ohio river from Pittsburgh to Cairo; on the Tennessee, 255 1/2 miles, and Kanawha, 73 1/2 miles. It has 501 post lights, 42 floating lights and employs 492 light-housekeepers. Commodore Charles T. Force, U. S. N., is the Inspector of this District. The system of naming the vessels after flowers and plants is almost general. The names of the tenders are as follows:

First District—Geranium, Lilac, Myrtle.
Second District—Azalea, Mayflower, Myrtle and Verbena.
Third District—Armeria, Cactus, Daisy, Gardenia, John Rodgers, Mistletoe, Nettle and Rose.
Fourth District—Leal and Zizania.
Fifth District—Bramble, Holly, Jessamine, Maple, Thistle and Violet.
Sixth District—Pharos, Snowdrop, Water Lily and Wistaria.
Seventh District—Arbutus, Clover, Laurel and Mangrove.
Eighth District—Arbutus, Clover and Pansy.
Ninth District—Amaranth, Arcadia, Dahlia and Lotus.
Tenth District—Haze and Warrington.
Eleventh District—Amaranth, Lotus and Marigold.
Twelfth District—Hazel and Madrona.
Thirteenth District—Columbine and Manzanita.
Fourteenth District—Goldenrod.
Fifteenth District—Lily.
Sixteenth District—Joseph Henry.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drugstore of Mr. Houshean and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

The members of Limestone Lodge No. 36, K. of P., attended services at the First Baptist Church last evening, it being the thirty-sixth anniversary of the Order. The Pastor, Rev. J. W. Porter, delivered a special and appropriate sermon.

A drinking man the other day told his family of a wonderful dream he had the previous night in which he saw three cats—one fat, one lean, and the other blind, and he wondered what it meant. "I know," replied his little son. "The man that sells the whisky is the fat cat, mother the lean cat and you the blind cat."

A Convincing Answer.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's Drugstore one evening," says Wesley Nelson of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine, as they all failed. He said: 'Well, if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.
